LODGE NOTES

The Masons in Kentucky will be very glad to know that the Racing Commission has arranged for the fall races to begin in Louisville on August 30, 1922, and will complete the season there before the Grand Lodge opens on the third Tuesday in October. Last year the races and the Grand Lodge meeting conditions were entirely inadequate. One hundred Masons were compelled to go home because they could find no place to sleep.

The Million Dollars Committee of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, at Louisville, of which G. Allison Holland is chairman, has not only secured subscriptions for the million dollars to build the new Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, but its subscriptions to date amount to $1,129,000, and the committee is endeavoring to make the sum $1,500,000, in order that they may have the most modern and complete home erected anywhere.

Mayor E. B. January, of Paris, Grand Master of the Kentucky Odd Fellows, whose duty under the law is to count the vote of election of Grand Lodge officers, reports the following selections for the next term:

Grand Master, J. C. Helburn, of Eminence; Deputy Grand Master, James Denton, of Somerset; Grand

Warden, J. A. Dodson, of Maysville; Grand Secretary, R. G. Ellett, of Lexington; Grand Treasurer, B. J. Durham, of Danville; Grand Representative, J. Whit Potter, of Bowling Green. To be directors of the Odd Fellows Home: W. V. Gregory, of Louisville, Beckham Overstreet, of Louisville, B. A. Logan, of Shelbyville, Roy Forman, of Lexington, Miss Mattie Dalton, of Lexington.

GAME WARDENS MAKE RAID

State Game Warden A. W. Bullock, and County Game Warden Jas. D. McClintock, both of Paris, made another raid on fish and game traps in Harrison county, near the Robertson county line. They blew up with dynamite two large fish dams, in Licking river, each containing two fish traps. Five basket traps were found near the river, secreted in high weeds. These were also destroyed. No arrests were made, but the officials have clues they are working up, which may lead to the capture of the law violators.

The Shelbyville Record, commenting on Mr. Bullock's good work, says:

"State Game Warden Bullock, formerly of Shelbyville, was fired on by violators of the fish and game laws five times while investigating their misdeeds in Robertson and Harrison counties the first of the week. All of the bullets missed their mark. Mr. Bullock, whose record as a public official has always been praiseworthy, is now making his headquarters at Paris."
